Mission of the New Mexico Board of Nursing

The mission of the New Mexico Board of Nursing is to regulate nursing practice, nursing education, medication aide practice and education, and hemodialysis technician practice and education in the interest of public health, safety and welfare. The Board of Nursing accomplishes this mission by:

- Ensuring nursing competence
- Promoting the safe and effective practice of nursing
- Building partnerships between nurses, the nursing community, consumers, other health care providers and organizations

VISION:

All persons in New Mexico will have access to technically and culturally competent nursing care that is safely and respectfully provided by qualified nursing personnel. Nurses will be valued and accountable as unique members of the professional health care team.
